a) How many books are there in the Old Testament? _____

b) How many books are there in the New Testament? _____

Lost Books of the Bible – the bible is complete. Many have tried to incorporate these books to make money, start another religion, and add content that satisfy the flesh and condone sin. Satan has tried to discredit and bring confusion concerning the Bible in many ways for decades.

- Many organizations have used the Apocrypha to say they are Holy Books. Apocrypha means that which is veiled, secret or closed. In biblical literature, works outside an accepted canon of scripture. The history of the term's usage indicates that it referred to a body of esoteric writings that were at first prized, later tolerated, and finally excluded. It refers to 14 books added to the Old Testament by the Roman Catholic Church in 1546. Those books are as follows : 1 Esdras, 2 Esdras, Tobit, Judith, Additions to Esther, Wisdom of Solomon, Ecclesiasticus, Baruch, Letter of Jeremiah, Prayer of Azariah
  - Susanna, Bel and the Dragon, Prayer of Manasseh, 1 Maccabees, 2 Maccabee

Most of the rest of Christendom rejects these books having a place in the canon of scripture. The following are some of the reasons for this rejection:

- 1) It is universally acknowledged that they never had a place in the Hebrew canon.
- 2) They were written in the 400 years between Malachi and John the Baptist when there was no inspired prophetic utterances. The last Old Testament prophet Malachi predicted the next messenger to come to Israel would be the forerunner of Christ. (Mal 3:1)
- 3) They were never quoted in the New Testament by Jesus or the Apostles.
- 4) They are not found in any catalog of Canonical Books during the first four centuries of the church.
- 5) Divine inspiration and authority is claimed by none of the writers and is disclaimed by some of them. (II Macc. 2:23; 15:38)
- 6) None of the writer's speak with a message from Jehovah.
- 7) The books contain many historical, geographical and chronological errors, at times contradicting themselves, the bible and History.
- 8) They teach doctrines and uphold practices which are contrary to canonical Scriptures. (e.g. lying is sanctioned, suicide and assassination are justified, magical incantations and prayers for the dead are taught and approved.)
- 9) They were first added after 300 A.D. The Laodicean Council in 363 A.D. replaced them as being not inspired. They first appeared in the Vatican Version of the first century. The Council of Trent in 1546 A.D. added them as more versions of scripture.
- 10) The lack of prophetic element in them and apparent imitation of the other books of the Old Testament that are inspired.
- 11) Too free of the use of imagination, giving rise to silly stories, and lack of spiritual force and power.

Canonicity defined- The word canon means measuring rod and refers to the standard or rule. Canonicity means that the biblical books have been measured by a standard, have stood the test and have been recognized as being inspired by God. This is how we measure the validity of the books in scripture now and the fallacies of those that claim to be valid.

- a) Apostolic Connection- Was the books written by an Apostle, and if not, was it written by someone in close relation to an Apostle to raise it up to apostolic level.
- b) As to Content- Were the contents of such spiritual character to warrant a place in scripture? This eliminates other spurious writings.
- c) As to Universally- Was the book universally accepted by the church in that time? This also helped in eliminating questionable gospels and other writings.
- d) As to Inspiration- Was the book inspired? Did it have internal evidence? This became the final test for all New Testament Books.
